

THE CONFERENCE DRAWING CROWDS

Bible Instruction Listened to by Large Audience Each Day.

STUART'S MAGNETIC SERMONS

The Attendance From Abroad is Larger Than Last Year—Audiences Well Pleased With the Meetings—There Will be Much Good Obtained.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

The attendance at the morning session of the Bible Conference brought out a better attendance than on the previous days and the song service was enjoyed by all. Prof. Brown was as interesting as ever in his lecture and his earnest manner caused those present to pay strict attention to his careful explanations of the Book of Matthew, which is one of deep interest to Bible students.

Afternoon Session.

The Tabernacle was well attended in the afternoon, the people being attracted by the singing as well as the Bible discourses.

While the choir is not so large as at the evening service the time devoted to the song service is most pleasantly spent, and Mr. Bagby, besides his well rendered solos, is bringing the chorus up to a very good standard of excellence.

Professor Miller, whose one theme has attracted the attention of many who take pleasure in the study of the Bible, each day more forcibly impresses his hearers in regard to the prophecy as far as fulfilled, and he has a fund of sound argument to support him in his assertions, the most convincing being the Bible. His references to the various passages of Scripture are nearly all made from memory and he quotes both the chapter and the verse with a familiarity that shows much of study and application to his task.

There is not a dull moment in his lectures, and the most indifferent cannot fail to be interested, after listening to him a short time. These lectures are very much appreciated by all.

Evening Session.

Another large audience was present at the Tabernacle last night. After singing by the choir, which was highly complimented, and solos by Mr. Bagby, Rev. Frederick Pascoe offered prayer.

A song by the choir, during which a five-voice offering was received, was followed by another sweet solo by Mr. Bagby.

Rev. George Stuart then began his address, taking for his text, "There is a lad here," and using the story of the lad and fishes to introduce the boy to his hearers, gave one of his animated discourses. The speaker gave out some most excellent facts regarding the boy and his training, which should have been heard by every father and mother who have boys to rear.

It was one of Mr. Stuart's best and most logical sermons and we know it made an impression on many present. The meeting was most interesting, closing with a season of prayer.

THE STROBACH CASE.

Hearing as Regards the $5,000 Bond Was Up in Atlanta.

The Atlanta Constitution of the 14th inst. has the following to say regarding the famous Strobach case:

"The Strobach case, involving the ownership of $5,000 on deposit at the Neal Bank, was taken up by Judge Pendleton yesterday afternoon, but is unfinished, and the trial will be resumed this morning.

"In the original petition in this case the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and the American Surety Company, the latter having been on Strobach's bond as railroad agent, claim that the money on deposit is part of the sum alleged to have been embezzled by Strobach.

"Mrs. Strobach claims that the money is here and that she came into possession of it through the sale of a house and lot and household furniture in Gainesville, Fla., the entire property, she alleges, belonging to her personally.

"Yesterday when the case came up for a hearing, Attorney Robert Alston, representing the railroad, offered an amendment to the original petition, which alleges that the property sold by Mrs. Strobach was largely purchased with money alleged to have been embezzled by Strobach and rightfully belonging to the railroad.

"Van Astor Batchelor and Lowry Arnold, representing Mrs. Strobach, made a vigorous protest to the allowance of this amendment, and Judge Pendleton took the matter under consideration. He will pass on the admission of the amendment this morning."

The Atlanta Constitution of Friday, the 16th inst., contains the following which will be of interest to readers of The Sun:

"The injunction asked for by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and the American Surety Company against James Noble Strobach, Mrs. Daisy Strobach, the Neal Bank and William F. Manry, restraining defendants from interfering with the $5,000 deposited in the Neal Bank by Mrs. Strobach, was granted by Judge Pendleton yesterday afternoon.

"This injunction will be dissolved, however, and Mrs. Daisy Strobach allowed to withdraw the money and retain possession of it, provided that she give bond for the amount such as will be available provided the money is at the final trial adjudged the property of the Atlantic Coast Line.

"Some time ago James Noble Strobach was brought back from Canada to answer to the charge of embezzlement of the funds of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. His bond was assessed at $5,000 and this sum was given, his wife depositing the money with the Neal Bank in order to obtain a bondsman. It was claimed by the railroad attorneys that the money put up by her was a part of that taken by her husband."

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile.
Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee by all druggists. Price 50c.

THE AUDIENCES STEADILY GROWING

In Number at the National Bible Conference Each Evening.

PROF. BROWN'S ABLE LECTURES

The Rev. George Stuart, Evangelist, Has No Limit to His Able Sermons.
Much Enthusiasm Manifested—Prof.
Miller Still Speaks Interestingly.

The attendance at the Bible Conference yesterday showed plainly that the interest is growing with each session, and Prof. Brown made the morning hour more interesting than ever.
He has a fund of knowledge which he imparts with much clearness.

Afternoon Session.

The audience was large and the meeting most interesting. Prof. Miller in his lectures manifests an interest that keeps the closest attention of his hearers. The music is also inspiring and adds much to the pleased attention of the audiences. No one subject has been so thoroughly explained as his theme of prophecies, and the audiences are most attentive.

Evening Session.

The crowds commenced to arrive early in the evening, and to all appearances the meetings are becoming more and more of an attraction. After singing by the choir and a solo by Mr.
Bagby, prayer was offered by Rev.
Frederick Pascoe.

Mr. Bagby then sang "I Know That My Redeemer Knows" very sweetly, and was followed with a prayer by Prof. Brown.

The choir sang during the taking of the offering and the Rev. Geo. Stuart, who seems to improve at each service, delivered one of his powerful sermons as only he can do, to the satisfaction of the large audience. While he puts much pathos and sound logic in his efforts, he has a sufficient amount of wholesome humor to make all listen.
He has no poor spots in his sermons or discourses.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold and believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia."—W. D.
Whiteox, Logan, New York. Sold by all druggists.

In County Judge's Court.

Edward Jones and Joe Tompkins, colored, were arraigned in Judge Mason's court Friday upon a charge of obtaining goods under false pretense.
The charge was preferred by J. P.
Lynch, the lumber manufacturer of Fairbanks, who stated to the court that the men, while in his employ, obtained goods in advance of their salary, after which they "jumped" their jobs.

In default of $150 bond each for their appearance before the next grand jury the men were committed to jail.

Attorney Robt. E. Davis appeared for the prosecution.

Frightfully Burned.

Chas. W. Moore, a machinist of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "A quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for burns, wounds, sores, eczema and piles. 25c at all drug stores.

Real Estate Transfer.

S. F. Sheppard has purchased the Dye cottage, North Gainesville, and will occupy same with his family. This is one of the best properties in that section and Mr. Sheppard's friends will congratulate him upon his new possession.
